

Luiz Felipe Albuquerque

Luiz is a journalist who is responsible for communications in Tricontinental: Institute for Social Research's Brazil office. He worked in the communications sector of the Landless Workers Movement (MST) for five years, contributing to the movement's public relations and press outreach. He was also an editor of the MST's website and the Jornal Sem Terra ('Landless Journal'). He worked for the journal Brasil de Fato for four years as an associate editor, also assisting in the coordination and political guidance for the Center of Popular Media (CPMídias).