Tricontinental: Institute for Social Research international, movement-driven institution focused on stimulating intellectual debate that serves people’s aspirations.

celina · Thursday, April 25th, 2019
A Gestapo officer barged into Picasso's apartment in Paris. There was a photograph of
It is not what is in these Logs that bothers the powerful, whose indignation is reserved for those brave people who expose their crimes and call them to account.
#FreeOlaBini
For providing us with The Iraq War Logs that would help us, in the near future, to hold those responsible for launching the war of aggression on Iraq as war criminals.
For Wikileaks that told us the truth about what was actually happening.
For exposing the human rights violations, criminality and horrors of US war on Iraq.
Thank You, Julian Assange. Thank You, Chelsea Manning,

There is always the illusion that military spending is for security, when it appears to be more for profit. The entire ... is 'hard-wired for corruption'. 'In 1997, I was told in Washington that a mid-nineties report by the CIA concluded', he falling flat. There is always money for war, but never enough money to build the scaffolding for peace.

Why do governments spend such a vulgar amount on weapons? In his monumental

8.
7.
6.
5.
4.
3.
2.
1.

Focus on the arms industry is sporadic, with the nine highest-spending countries combined: China, Saudi Arabia, Russia, India, France, United Kingdom, Japan, Germany and ... Lanka, where military-grade explosives were used in the terrible murder of over three hundred and fifty innocent people.

Global military spending is over $2 trillion, with the United States by itself spending almost half this amount. Total US ... the Central Intelligence Agency. Add these up and the US military budget is already over $1 trillion, as our friends at

Peter Saul,

It has become impossible to hold states to account. The ICC cannot move on powerful states, such as the United States and ... 'My son Wahidullah's head was missing', he said with great sadness. 'I only recognised him from his clothes'.

Lies lead to war and then lies are needed to cover up the horrors of war. Over the past few years, the International Criminal Court (ICC) had diligently

Khadim Ali,

At the entrance of the United Nations Security Council in New York City hangs a tapestry of Picasso's

On 26 April 1937, twelve bombers of the German Condor Legion and the Italian Aviazione Legionaria flew low over the ... where they let loose their fiery arsenal. Almost two thousand people died in this defenceless town. Noel Monk of the

Dear Friends,

This entry was posted on Thursday, April 25th, 2019 at 9:53 am and is filed under newsletter, home page main
You can follow any responses to this entry through the Comments (RSS) feed. Both comments and pings are currently closed.