Part of the story includes climate change and adverse trade deals for the small countries which shows a decline in wildlife population by 60% over the past forty years. The authors of the report blame ‘humanity’...There is no ‘humanity’ by itself only classes and nations, where some classes and certain nations dominate the agenda for the planet. Reliance Corporation wipes out the forest and puts pressure on the tigers; the villagers who are affected by this exploitation are effectively turned into a commodity and does not care at all for its existence. It is this system that drives the destruction of the Amazon Rainforest and the killing of other life forms.

The Benedictine monk Marcelo Barros...
